

For the Life of the World

This seven-part film series will help you, your friends, church or organization investigate God's Economy of All Things. Explore how God's purposes are woven into every area of our lives: family, work, art, charity, education, government, recreation and all creation! Rediscover the role of the church and how our lives lived on earth matter in God's plan for the world.

Week 1. Exile (21 Feb 2018)

Runtime: 20 minutes

How do our everyday lives impact our communities? Comical actor-writer Evan Koons joins Stephen Grabill, Amy Sherman and Dwight Gibson to rediscover what our faith is actually for. Evan is reminded of the eternal song blessing the world with beauty and intricate abundance.

Week 2. Love (28 Feb 2018)

Runtime: 23 minutes

Does God have a plan for family? Messy, mundane, and hopefully joyous, family is a fundamental pathway into the world. Explore the role of family and its dynamic impact on our lives, our communities, and the whole earth.

Week 3a. Creative Service (7 Mar 2018)

Runtime: 14 minutes

Our daily, creative labor participates in a vast collaboration that spans time and the globe. Learn how everything we make and do forms beautiful, mysteriously complex connections with each other.

Week 3b. Order (7 Mar 2018)

Runtime: 18 minutes

In parts of the world injustice is more common than justice. What causes this breakdown in communities and nations around the globe? Explore how hospitality, creativity and freedom contribute to beauty and order in communities.

Week 4a. Wisdom (14 Mar 2018)

Runtime: 15 minutes

Alive in every era and place, the quest for knowledge springs from many and varied motives. What is the purpose for discovery and knowing anything in our world? Explore how knowledge of God's world shared in love produces abundance and blessing.

Week 4b. Wonder (14 Mar 2018)

Runtime: 17 minutes

The daily rush to efficiency may overshadow our need to wonder at God's beauty and creativity in the world. Rediscover what it means to "behold" and be "useless" in God's presence, to let his extravagant, gratuitous love renew us.

Week 5. Church (21 Mar 2018)

Runtime: 18 minutes

From the old meeting house to the modern church building, Christians gather together as one and then stream into the world again as salt and light. Rediscover the church as the body of Christ in the world, bringing healing and restoration to all creation.
